

ATRIUM

Senior Actuarial
Analyst
Full Time,
Permanent

Main Purpose	To provide support and insightful analysis to the Actuarial team, primarily assisting with the syndicate reserving process.
Reports to	Syndicate Reserving Manager
Job Details	Permanent full-time position. Atrium offers all permanent employees the chance to work flexibly through our charter for flexible working.
Authority Level	No authority to underwrite or settle claims on behalf of the syndicate
Key Accountabilities	Support the quarterly reserving process: Working closely with underwriters and under the guidance of the syndicate reserving manager, assist with the reserving process for the syndicate Day to day liaison with underwriters, finance, claims and other agency staff Support and management of reserving system in Anaplan and data visualisation of outputs: Assist with development of reserving system Assist with development of data visualisation of outputs including use of Power BI Technical provisions: Assist in the process for the calculation and / or review of the Solvency II technical provisions Reserve uncertainty Assist with the assessment of reserve uncertainty, in particular the modelling and parameterisation of reserve risk within the Syndicate capital model. Ad-hoc actuarial projects: Support the development of rating models and rating of individual risks Provide support as needed to the capital modelling team

	Opportunities for extended periods of work in capital and pricing to support the development and career path of the role holder Presentation of results: Attend relevant committee meetings and provide clear and well-justified presentation of reserving outcomes. External relations: Liaise with the external actuaries for provision of the SAO and external auditors to ensure these projects run smoothly, and results are well-understood. Business planning: Carry out analysis and review for the Syndicate’s business planning process to ensure logical, realistic and achievable loss assumptions are set.
Required Skills and Knowledge	Member of the IFoA making good progress in the Actuarial examinations A good knowledge of insurance, reinsurance and the business written by the syndicates. IT skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Good Word and Excel skills • Knowledge of specific actuarial software (ResQ) an advantage • Knowledge of Anaplan an advantage. Excellent communication skills, especially an ability to explain complex calculations to a non-technical audience so that they can aid or challenge decision making. High level of numeracy and analytical skills, with a high degree of accuracy and attention to detail. Good relationship management to develop and maintain effective relationships between finance, underwriting, operations, claims and senior management stage. High level of organisation. Commitment to personal development and keenness to increase skills through training.